

Where to obtain an apostille

An apostille is a document certifying public documents for use in other countries. when makin Aliyah, all required public documents (Birth, Marriage, Divorce, Death and Criminal background certificates for example) must be affixed with an apostille stamp.

List of issuing authorities:

http://www.hcch.net/index_en.php?act=conventions.authorities&cid=41

Country	What	Details	Where
USA	Obtaining copies of Birth, Death, Marriage and Divorce Certificates	In the event that you are missing a document:	http://www.cdc.gov/nchs/w2w.htm
	Obtaining a Social Security report	A social security report is a useful document if you are required to show that you or your parents lived outside of Israel as part of your application.	http://www.ssa.gov/myaccount/
	Obtaining an FBI background check	Some applications require a criminal background check	http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/criminal-history-summary-checks
UK	Obtaining copies of Birth, Marriage, Adoption, and Death Certificates		http://www.gro.gov.uk/gro/content/
	Obtaining a Police check ("Subject Access Check")		https://www.askthe.police.uk/content/Q87.htm
Australia	Obtaining copies of Birth, Death, Marriage and other Certificates		http://australia.gov.au/topics/law-and-justice/births-deaths-and-marriages-registries
	Obtaining a Police check		http://australia.gov.au/faq/police-criminal-history-records-check
	Obtaining a copy of your movement records	Your movement record shows entries and exits from Australia and is a useful document if you are required to show that you or your parents lived outside of Israel as part of your application.	http://www.immi.gov.au/managing-australias-borders/border-security/systems/movement-records.htm
South Africa	Obtaining copies of Birth, Death, Marriage and Adoption certificates		http://www.dha.gov.za/index.php/civic-services